FOREWORD

This, THE LOG OF 1957, was produced with but one thought in mind, and that was to satisfy the student body. "Which way would most of the students like to see it done?" was the question which we had to answer before any decision could be made. In our attempts to answer this question, we have constantly kept two points uppermost in our minds – the criticisms which have been directed at previous editions of the yearbook, and the suggestions which many students have made to us concerning this year's book. We hope we have done justice to both of them.

COOPERATIVE WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

Today, the success or failure of all human endeavor is directly proportional to how cooperatively people work together. The faster man learns to travel and the closer people live together the more important it becomes that we improve human relations. Man has come far from the time when he was an independent individual with the bare necessities of life, no leisure or luxuries, little or no culture and a short span of life, to an interdependent individual with ample food, shelter, clothing, more leisure and a longer span of life than any other individual in the history of man.

This progress has also increased the complexity of man's problems, the most important of which falls in the category of teaching people how to get along better together, to work as a team with a minimum of human conflict and, at the same time, to continue to be individuals with creative spirits.

Team work seems to be the order of the day. We see examples of it all around us. Today, surgeons work as a team rather than individually as they once did, first diagnosing, then operating to perform successfully operations unheard of before. Gradually, the idea of cooperative effort, through the United Nations, is supplanting the theory of individual military preparedness to maintain world peace. The traditional picture of the individual scientist or inventor experimenting alone is no more. Today, teams of as many as a hundred or more research workers will explore in a matter of weeks what it took the lone scientist years to investigate.

What meaning does this have for you as a student in Freehold Regional High School? Perhaps the most important implications are that to succeed in anything you must:(1) achieve academically and (2) learn to work cooperatively with others. Opportunities to experience working cooperatively with others are provided through: group projects in the class room, squad work in gymnasium classes, club activities, intramural games, student council work, class projects and the library council. As a student it is your responsibility to participate in these activities so that you will learn to work as a team member with your fellow students. If this is accomplished, you cannot help but succeed as an individual in adult life.

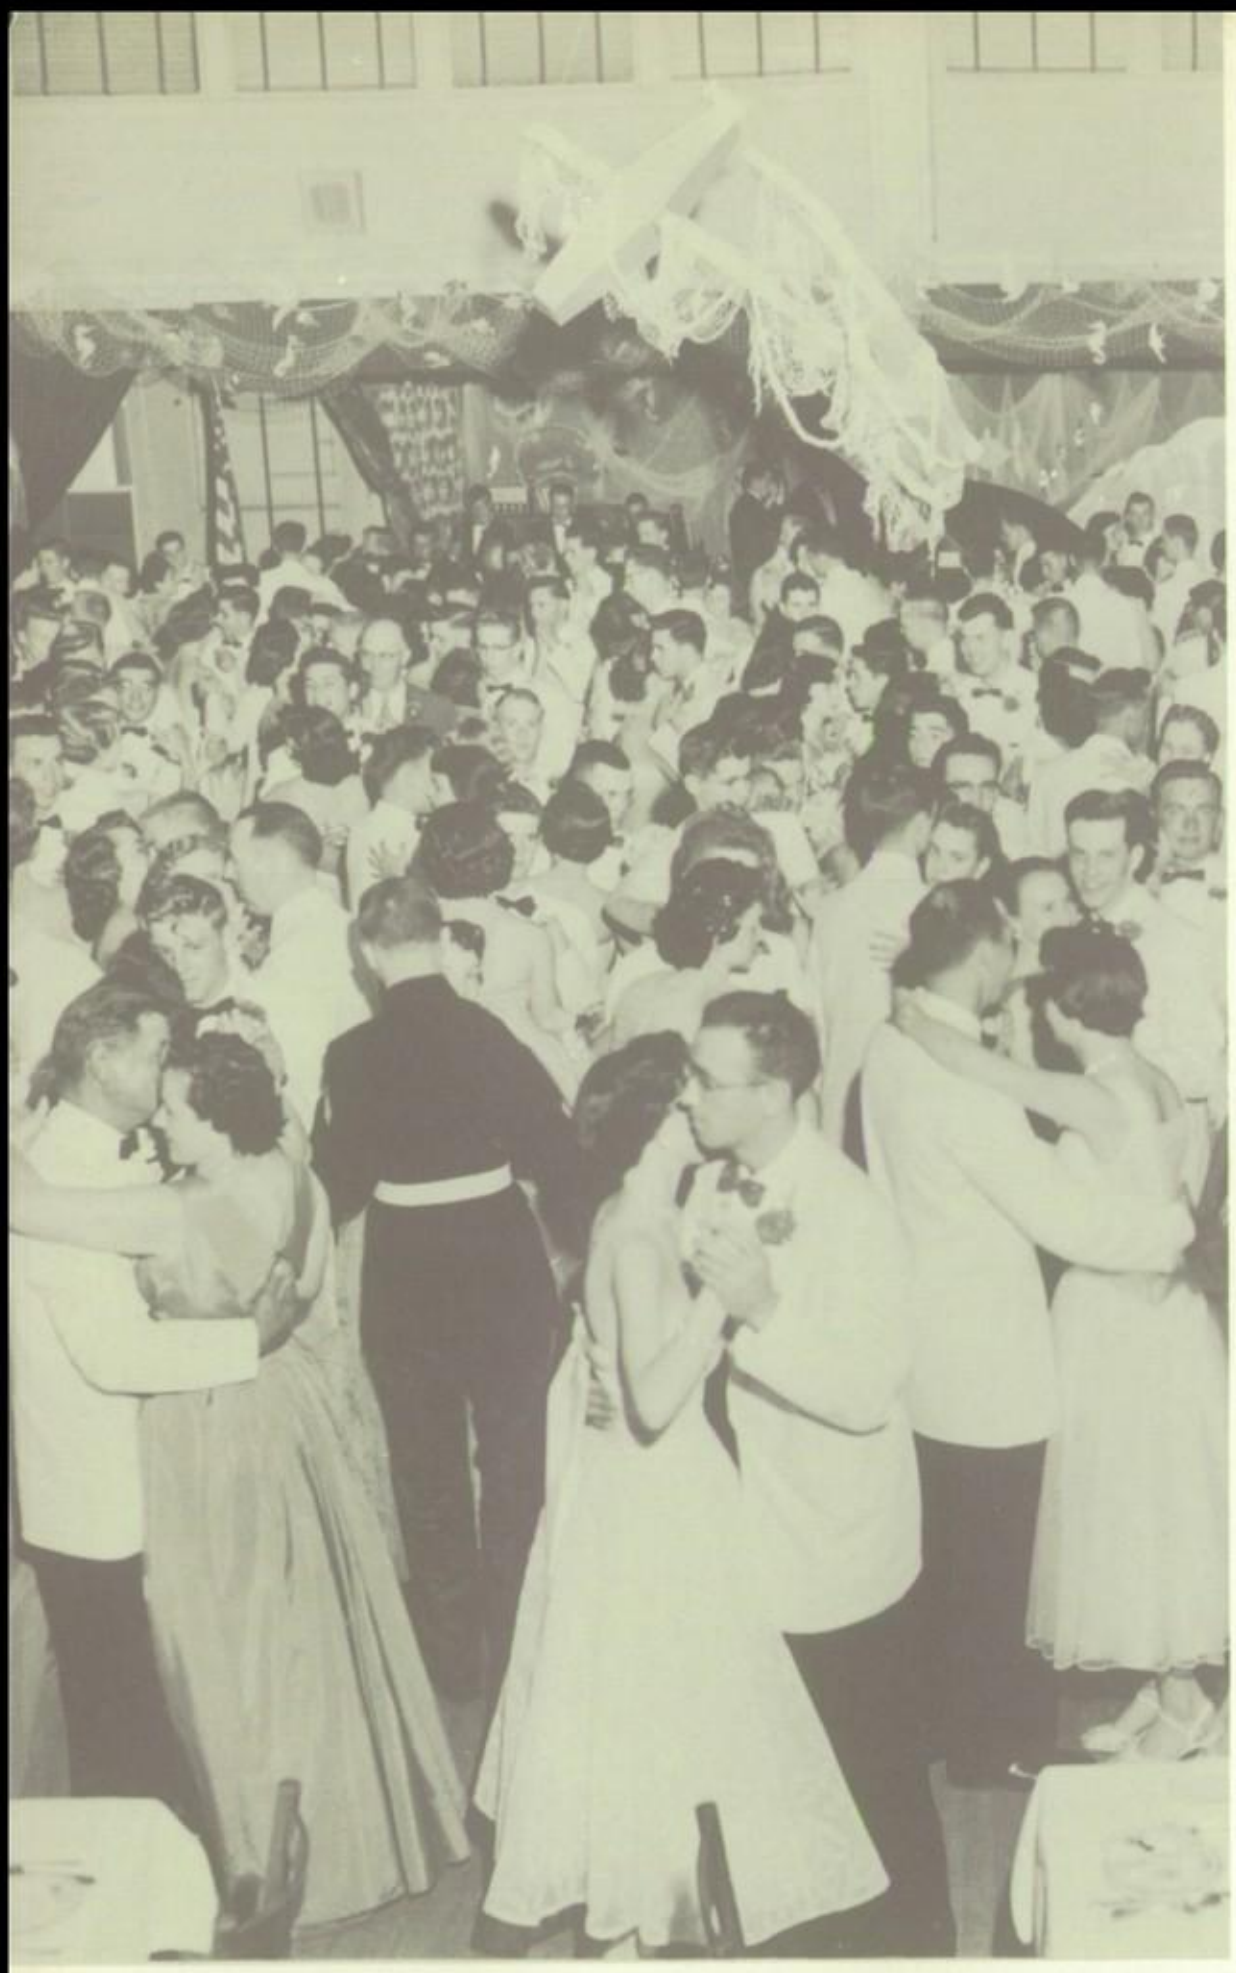
Junior Prom

With girls in their prettiest gowns and boys all decked out, the enthusiastic crowd was all ready for an evening which would remain a permanent part of their school memories. Sea Girt Inn became transformed into a sea-side wonderland. The dance floor was decorated with nets, shells, and fish. An anchor was suspended over the center of the dance floor, under which the dancers whirled. The theme of "Ebb Tide" is one which will remain a pleasant remembrance for all who attended. After a delicious meal, the prom was climaxed by the crowning of the King and Queen.



The night of which so many had dreamed for so long finally arrived, and all were to have fond memories of a June night and an "Ebb Tide".

Reigning as King and Queen of the Prom were "Butch" Bodnarchuk and Judy Legere. Their newly acquired crowns have been placed on their heads by President Louis Burke and Secretary Joan Noller of the Junior Class.

"I'm sure we are having fun at the prom."

"Seems as though happiness was meant to be yours."

King and Queen – happy they seem!

"It was nice meeting you. Don't mention it; the pleasure was all mine.

"Stop it papa. If you ever touch again mama, I'll kill you with my own hands dead!"

We are sure Charles fits the beard that Mr. Allen is a'fix'n.

Cast of the play (left to right): Donna Freeman, Mitchell Tanne, Yolanda Benson, Charles Mahoney, Janet Rosin, and Arnold Hantman.

Senior Play

"Papa Is All"

"A job well done," must be the afterthought of this production. The scenery, constructed by the woodworking classes under the direction of Mr. Bentz, made the Pennsylvania Dutch atmosphere realistic and natural. Behind the scenes, the students in charge of properties held the key for the success of a heart-warming play. Mr. Allen, aided by the student coaches, cannot be forgotten for a smooth running "hit." Last, but not least, the actors deserve an extra hand because of the dialogue they had to grasp in order to realistically portray the characters.

"Maybe I can't fill out in the front or in the back, but I can let it out some."

Top: Jake convinces everyone that "Papa Is All" and later regrets his folly when papa returns.
Bottom: "You sass me back," scowls papa at Emma when she accidently tells of her date with the "surveyor."

"I'll hide your skin off," papa angrily tells Jake.

Christmas Dance

The dancers swirl romantically to the music as few can forget. The flowing music and the arrival of Santa added to the fun.

Santa's helpers wrap last minute surprises.

"What a determined look, Santa!"

Sugar cane was the symbol of Santa, and the obvious mistletoe brought gales of laughter.

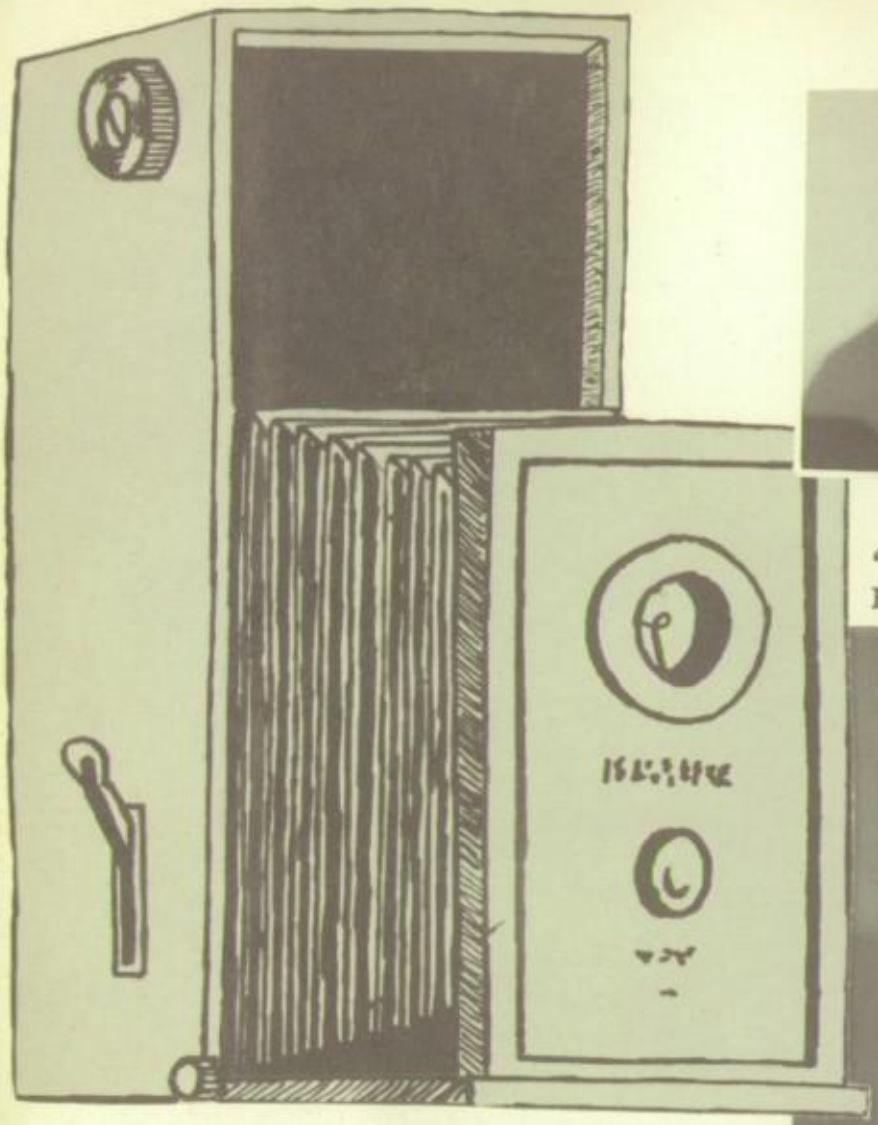
The Christmas Dance, the most formal dance of the year besides the Junior Prom, was held in the new gymnasium. Over five-hundred people attended the dance, which was the largest crowd ever to attend a dance in the history of the school. The gym was alive with Christmas Spirit. Naturally, no Christmas Dance would be complete in Freehold Regional without jolly, old "Saint Nick" passing out presents to the guests.

"My, but Joan looks surprised! What's in the box? Hm-m-m-m?"

Jolly old Saint Nick never fails to bring good cheer to everyone. Betsy seems to appear quite happy about the circumstances.

"Give me the check, or you'll lose it!"

Candid. .



"That most happy feller, Fred Ehrenstein" – one of our janitors.

"Bob Russie, the joker." More students seem to enjoy him and his funny remarks.

Some of the credit goes to the clerical practice group, who help with school affairs.

Smiling "Jim Gere" is always in a hurry doing his work.

Kind "Bill Haines", always busy.

"Miss Button" – never too busy to give you a helping hand.

"Hattie Tyler" – she's always around with a hearty "hello" and conversation.

Hey! "Ben Philips", what you doing? Oh – No! Not you! A cheerleader?

We never see much of "Bill Mc Queen"; but from what we see, he's happy as can be.

Thanks to our secretaries ("Betty Carey, Adeline Skillman, and Dot Miller") the school's business has been kept intact and running on an even keel.

Hurry fast – to Mr. Conklin's biology class.

Music

Through the efforts of the band, choir, and orchestra our school days have been made musically enjoyable. Many wonderful concerts and school programs had their origins in the Music Department.

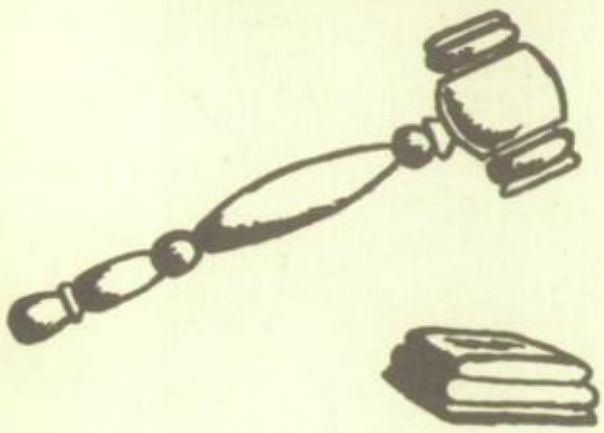
We owe much gratitude to all the students of the band, orchestra, and choir, and to their able leaders Mr. Lube and Miss Knodel!

The choir provides us with many enjoyable programs during the year. Their music seems to set the mood for each holiday. This was the result of hard work under the inspired leadership of Miss Knodel.

In this group there were many outstanding soloists, ranging from rock-n'-roll specialists and popular crooners to angelic choirists. Their melodies and rhythms were smooth and clear.

The orchestra this year was smaller than the band in number, but just as effective. Long weeks of practice, under the patient direction of Mr. Lube (camera shy), paid dividends when the orchestra presented its annual concert.

F.R.H.S.'s band at its best! The spanking new uniforms add a martial atmosphere to the music. You won't forget seeing them at every game, and they won't forget the Friday afternoon drill sessions in rain, hail, sleet, and snow!



Student Government

Seekers of Cooperation,
Responsibility and Fairness

To be an organization noted for responsibility, cooperation, and fairness was the goal set by our Student Council. The members of this organization were able to achieve this goal by successfully sponsoring many activities in the school, and by aiding other activities outside the school.

Among the Council's notable achievements were the sponsoring of a foreign child and the providing of two scholarships for graduating members of the Senior Class.

School spirit and the backing of school activities, both morally and financially, were the main concerns of the members of the Student Council this year. As elected representatives, they are to be commended for a job well done.

Merit Award . . . .

As recipients of the Freehold Regional High School Merit Award, these students are recognized as symbolic of a person who is mature, considerate, cooperative, and has the qualities of outstanding citizenship and leadership. These persons have demonstrated, by their actions at all times, that they are ready and willing to assume responsibility as constructive, reliable, and respected citizens. These students did not accept this recognition as a reward, but, rather, as a challenge to further these ideals. We hope that each and every one of them will constantly strive to reach the goal for which the Freehold Regional High School Merit Award was founded. In doing this, they will not only achieve the highest honor that can come to a student of our high school, but their actions will lead to a finer school, a finer community, and a finer nation.

S-t-r-e-t-c-h!! Oh, those exercises! Lots of exercise makes a healthy and strong body; but oh, how sore those muscles will be tomorrow! Lots of good-natured complaining and lots of fun for all.

It looks more like charades than Volleyball!

"And away we go!"

The most popular atheletic program for girls in F.R.H.S. is the Girls' Athletic Association. The G.A.A. is sponsored by the New Jersey Athletic Association. The governing body of the G.A.A. is the G.A.A. Council. It is composed of the officers of the organization, two representitives from each class, and a point system manager.

The G.A.A. offers a well-rounded sports curriculum and contributes to the individual friendships in our school. It provides the girls with an opportunity to participate in both team and individual sports.

Some of the team sports are: Hockey, Soccer, Basketball, Volleyball, Speedball, Softball, and La Crosse. The individual sports are: Tennis, Badminton, Swimming, Quoits, Tenequoit, Skating, Horseback Riding, and Golf.

Sally shows us how with the greatest of ease.

Up and over, and another point is scored! Volleyball is just one of the many competitive sports offered in the G.A.A. program.

The F.R.H.S. Drill Team has proved an impressive sight each time it has performed publicly. We're all hoping to see more of them next year.

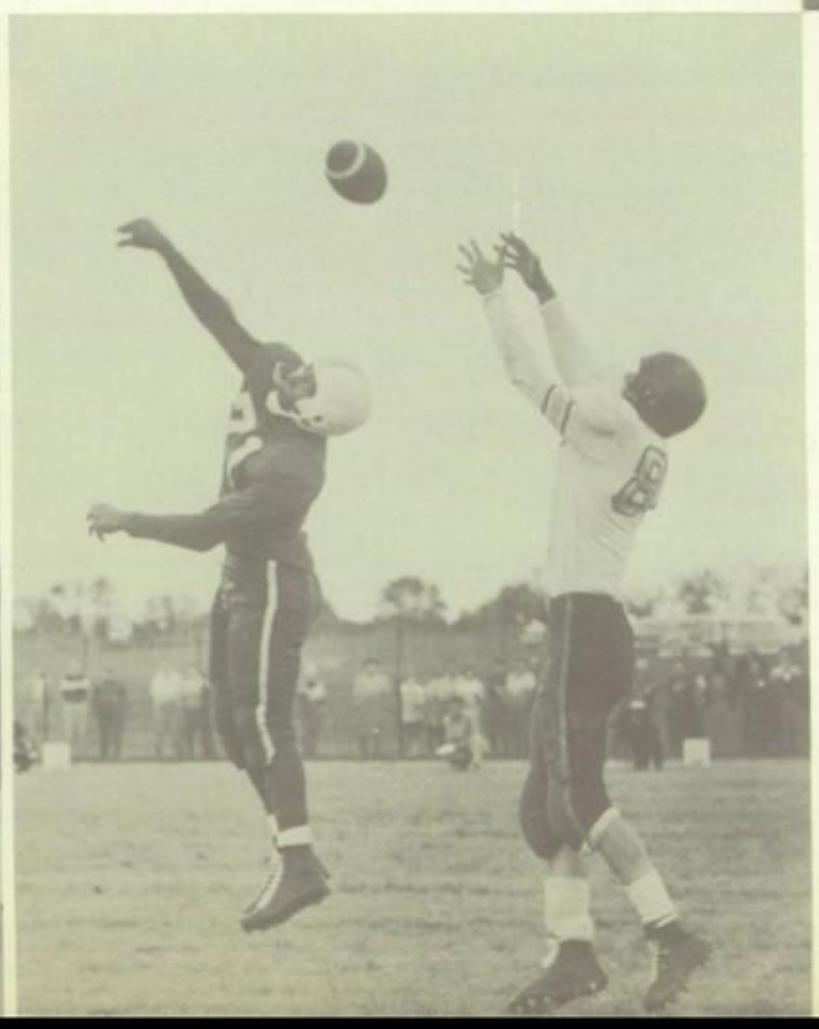
Gridiron Favorites - F. R. H. S.

"All right gang, this is what we'll do . . ."

"Will he get it?"



For the fourth straight year the Colonials of Freehold Regional won the Shore Conference Group A Championship.

Despite some serious setbacks in the early part of the season, including losses and injuries, the Colonials showed their true mettle, spirit, drive and sportsmanship which, when combined, enabled them to again repeat the records of other years.

Freehold Regional finished the season with a record of five wins, three losses, and one tie. All losses were to teams in a high group.

The team, under the capable director of Coach Schank, Coach Zuber, and Coach VanEtten, not only showed their spirit in the games but in practice as well. They became champions because they stuck to their rigid training rules, and practiced hard to correct their early season faults.

Here are Freehold's charming cheerleaders who are responsible for the high morale of our team. Left to right: Co-Captain Joan Noller, Fran Ekdahl, Pat McGackin, Sheila Kelsey, Carol Guise, Phyllis Mongano, Madeline Draper, Carol Freeman, Cynthia Jones, Joan Schank, and Ann Durie. BASKETBALL

Freehold Regional's Basketball Team entered the season with a new coach and a beautiful new gym. The team was inexperienced and did not have the heighth that previous F.R.H.S. teams have had. Even the boys' great spirit and determination could not overcome the weakness of inexperience. However, Freehold is looking forward to better years ahead as this year's team was composed primarily of Juniors and Sophomores.

By the way, Pudder's long stretch gave the Colonials control of the ball.

"Looking for the moon Howard?"

Track and Field

Roaring up and over with a mighty burst of speed and flying spikes are Dug Lawrence and Francis Carter.

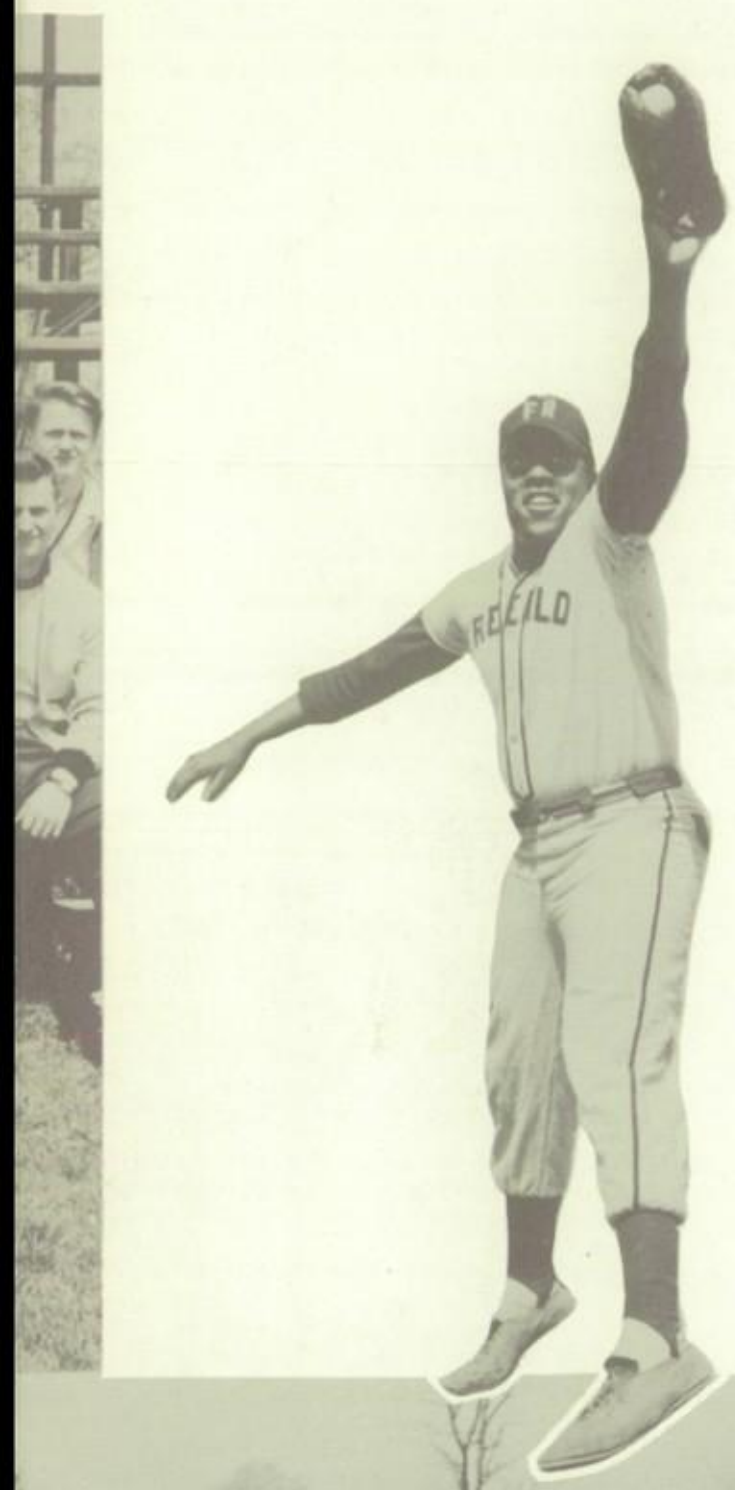
Last year's track team proved to be less fruitful then it might have been. Though possessing considerable potentiality, the team was hampered by double sessions and a practice field obstructed by the construction of the new addition.

Highlights of the season were the several new championship meets. Among these were Bridgeton Relays and Monmouth - Ocean meet, which were added to the Colonial slate.

The schedule opened on an optomistic note, with victories over Lakewood and Red Bank. However, as the season wore on, the Colonial's hopes for retaining their Shore Conference crown never materialized.

Bright spots of the 1956 campaign were the fine performances of Emery Pudder, consistent point-getter in the shot put, and John Geisler's mile victory in the Central Jersey meet.

Baseball



Starting the season in earnest by practicing hard, the Colonials showed everyone that they meant to excel in baseball as in all other sports. This they did by finishing the season in a three-way tie for first place with Red Bank and Leonardo.

Freehold Regional defeated Red Bank easily. However, Leonardo became a different story. With due thanks to Lorenzo Stanford's pinch-hit home run with two outs and two strikes in the last inning of a two – two game, the Colonials again brought home the Shore Conference Championship.

1956 F.R.H.S. Baseball Team
First Row, left to right: Vince Cullen, Fred Cruger, Tom Barkalow, Lee Lewis, Cal Dean Wilson, Richard Shutzer, Roger Kane, Larry Friedman, David Naylor, William Walker, Terry Hunt, Paul Sitkus, David Cashill, and Joe Buczynski. Second Row, left to right: Coach Joseph Callaert, Joe Henderson, Wayne Conover, Kenneth Applegate, John Muly, Edward Owens, Francis Batcha, Robert Taylor, Arnold Hantman, John McCarthy, Alphonso Pace, Lorenzo Stanford, David Cashion, manager William Hulse and Forman Barkalow, and Head Coach Harold Schank.

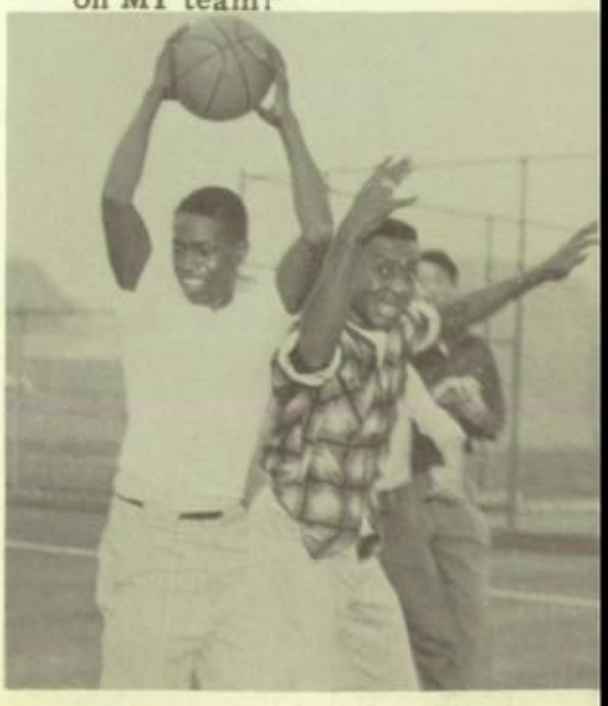
Intramural Program . . . .

Maybe none of these girls could hit the ball, but everyone had a great time trying.

"Come on! What are you waiting for?"

"Stand back boys. I've got the reach on you."

"Hey, I thought you were on MY team!"



This year was the first year that F. R. H. S. offered an intramural program. In spite of a weak start, the program progressed nicely, and the activities settled down to a regular schedule. Games were scheduled to be played homeroom against homeroom. Mr. Dunton, who is very interested in athletics, was in charge of the program. The intramural program is planned for those students whose limited athletic abilities would prevent them from being varsity athletes. It is well known that almost all high school people can benefit from competitive sports, provided they are pitted against people of equal ability, and that they will develop a keen, well-regulated, competitive spirit. We hope that the intramural sports program will be continued throughout future years, and that the range of both types of sports and participants will continue to increase.

"How did this guy get into the picture?" ... It looks as though he's having a good time.

These girls seem to be using all of their stored up energy.

"One, two, three ... Look out for flying hockey sticks!" ... These girls are all set for another shin-splitting game.

"What's the matter Bernie; is Lou's height too much for you?"
